RULE 2	APPLICATION OF TARIFF	PAGE 4

Rule 2: Application of Tariff

(A) General

1. This Tariff is applicable to the transportation of passengers and their accompanying baggage using aircraft operated by Calm Air.
2. Unless the fare rule governing a specific fare basis code applicable to the transportation purchased by the passenger states otherwise, the general rules contained in this tariff will apply.
3. The content of this tariff constitutes the contract between Calm Air and the passenger. Should there be a conflict between this tariff and any other document issued or posted by Calm Air, this tariff will prevail.
4. No agent, employee or representative of Calm Air has the authority to alter, modify or waive any provisions of this tariff.
5. Calm Air rules, regulations and conditions of carriage as found in this tariff are subject to change without notice only when required by applicable laws, government regulations, orders and requirements.
6. Calm Air will be responsible for the furnishing of transportation only over its own services, including those services offered via code-share arrangements where the flight is operated by another carrier. However, when the carrier issues a ticket, baggage check, or make any other arrangements for transportation over the services of any other carrier (whether or not such transportation is part of a through service), the carrier acts only as agent for such other carrier and the tariff of that other carrier will apply. Calm Air will assume no responsibility for the acts or omissions of such other carrier.

(B) Gratuitous Carriage

Calm Air reserves the right to exclude the application of all or any part of this tariff with respect to gratuitous carriage as stated in this tariff.

(C) Passenger Recourse

Any compensation offered to passengers is found in this tariff and is subject to applicable government regulations.

In the case of dispute with Calm Air, passengers should, as the first recourse, try to resolve any problem by dealing directly with Calm Air. If the passenger has attempted to resolve a complaint with the carrier and is still not satisfied, the passenger may take the matter to either the Canadian Transportation Agency or the appropriate court, as the passenger prefers.

RULE 23	DENIED BOARDING AND OVERBOOKING	PAGE 36

Rule 23: Denied Boarding and Overbooking

(A) Applicability

1. Denied Boarding occurs when a passenger(s) has a valid, confirmed and revenue ticket for a flight, but is not allowed to occupy a seat on board the aircraft because the number of passengers booked and/or checked in on a flight is greater than the number of seats available to be occupied. Passengers presenting themselves for travel must also have confirmed reservations and valid travel documents.
2. This rule does not apply to employee travel and gratuitous fares.
3. A passenger who fails to check-in or present themselves at the boarding area within the carrier's check-in deadline and/or boarding time deadline as specified in Rule 7, Check-in Time Limits, will not receive denied boarding compensation, will at Calm Air's discretion have their reservations cancelled and will be subject to the terms and conditions associated with the fare on which he or she is travelling.
4. Denying a passenger boarding because there are not enough seats is NOT the same as refusing to transport them, for example:
 - (a) For health, safety, or security reasons;
 - (b) For failing to follow carrier rules or instructions;
 - (c) Because a passenger does not have appropriate travel documents; or
 - (d) The passenger has failed to respect check-in and departure gate cut-off time limits.

(B) Categories of Denied Boarding

The following 3 categories apply to situations of denied boarding:

CONTROLLABLE		UNCONTROLLABLE
(1) Situation within airline control	(2) Situation within airline control, but required for safety	(3) Situation outside airline control
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overbooking - Intentionally sold more tickets for the flight than were available on the aircraft • For commercial reasons, changing an aircraft for one with fewer seats 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To comply with laws to ensure the safety of the flight, the passenger in question, or other passengers on board the aircraft • Malfunctions affecting seats, having to limit number of passengers to ensure safe weight and balance of the aircraft, • For aircraft safety reasons which stem from mechanical failures, changing an aircraft for one with fewer seats 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To accommodate the seating of an air marshal or for emergency medical transportation

Denied Boarding may be:

- Voluntary – a passenger chooses to give up their seat on the aircraft in exchange for compensation. The Air Passenger Protection Regulations compensation requirements do not apply to volunteers to give up their seat.
- Involuntary – a passenger is unwillingly denied travel and accommodated on another aircraft due to no seat availability and is provided obligations according to the category of denied boarding.

Calm Air	DOMESTIC TARIFF RULES	Amd Date	15 JUL 2019
		Amd No	02
RULE 23	DENIED BOARDING AND OVERBOOKING	PAGE 37

(C) Request for Volunteers

When a situation of denied boarding occurs, the following will apply:

1. Calm Air will ask for volunteers to relinquish their seats from among the confirmed passengers. The carrier will advise what type of compensation passengers will be entitled to should a passenger voluntarily relinquish his/her seat. This request process will take place at the check-in or boarding areas. Calm Air will continue to make this request of passengers until it obtains enough volunteers to prevent other passengers from being involuntarily denied boarding or until it determines that it does not, despite its best efforts, have enough volunteers.
2. The passenger who voluntarily surrenders his/her seat will receive agreed upon compensation from the carrier. Volunteers will be offered rerouting/refund options over and above the aforementioned benefits.
3. The volunteer will be presented with the "Volunteer Agreement Form" which must be completed AND signed by the passenger and airline representative.
4. The passenger will be eligible for such inconvenienced passenger compensation as outlined within the table under "Standards of Treatment and Compensation".

(D) Boarding Priorities

In the event there are not enough volunteers, the remaining passengers will be denied boarding on an involuntary basis.

1. Passengers holding confirmed and ticketed reservations will be permitted to board in the order in which they checked in. The following passengers must be the last people to be denied boarding against their will: Unaccompanied Minors;
2. Persons with disabilities and their support person, service animal, or emotional support animal;
3. Passengers travelling for medical purposes.
4. Passengers traveling with their family; and
5. Passengers who were previously denied boarding on the same ticket.

Note: Passengers who were already on the aircraft will not be denied travel, unless for safety reasons.

(E) Transportation for Passengers Denied Boarding

A passenger has the right to take the flight he or she has purchased. Calm Air will present a passenger who has been denied boarding, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, with the following options:

1. Carry the passenger to the destination named on the ticket, or applicable portion thereof, within a reasonable amount of time, on another of its passenger aircraft or in a different class of service on which space is available, without additional charge, regardless of the class of service in which the passenger was booked or,
2. Reroute the passenger to the destination named on the ticket, or applicable portion thereof, on its own transportation services within a reasonable amount of time. If the fare for the revised routing or class of service is higher than the fare paid by the passenger, the carrier will require no additional payment from the passenger.
3. Reroute the passenger to the destination named on the ticket, or applicable portion thereof, on another air carrier's transportation services, including interline or, where possible and necessary, non-interline carriers, within a reasonable amount of time. If the fare for the revised routing or class of service is higher than the fare paid by the passenger, the carrier will require no additional payment from the passenger.
4. If the passenger chooses to no longer travel as the denied boarding results in the loss of purpose of travel or if the carrier is unable to perform the options stated above within a reasonable amount of time, the carrier will transport the passenger to the point of origin named on the ticket and refund the full amount of the ticket, or subject to passenger's agreement, offer a travel voucher for future travel in the same amount.
5. Otherwise, should the alternate transportation proposed by the carrier not meet the passenger's satisfaction, the carrier will offer a refund equal to the fare and charge paid. The refund will be made to the purchaser of the ticket(s).

In addition to the above, the carrier will always consider the needs of the passenger on a case by case basis and take into account all known circumstances to avoid or mitigate the damages caused by the schedule irregularity within the carrier's control.

(F) Compensation for Passengers Involuntarily Denied Boarding

In addition to providing transportation, the following will apply to a passenger who is involuntarily denied boarding:

- The carrier must not have been able to accommodate the passenger on the flight on which he or she held confirmed and ticketed reservations and the flight departed without the passenger.

2. A Passenger will not be Eligible for Compensation Under the Following Conditions:

- The passenger who checks-in after the carrier's check-in deadline or presents him/herself at the boarding area after the carrier's boarding time deadline, will not receive denied boarding compensation and will have his/her reservations cancelled as per "Refusal to Transport".
- When a flight on which the passenger holds confirmed and ticketed reservations is cancelled.
- When space on a flight has been requisitioned by a government or by medical authorities for emergency transportation.

3. Amount of Compensation for Involuntary Denied Boarding

In cases of denied boarding within the airlines control except those required for safety, Calm Air will compensate the passenger for the inconvenience as per the below chart. Regardless of the fare paid (with exception to employee and gratuitous travel), passengers are entitled to a monetary compensation unless otherwise agreed upon.

Length of Delay (from original ARRIVAL time at destination)	Compensation Issued
Less than 6 hours	$ 900 CAD *($1800 travel credit voucher)
Over 6 hours but less than 9 hours	$ 1,800 CAD *($3600 travel credit voucher)
9 hours or more	$ 2,400 CAD *($4800 travel credit voucher)

*NOTE: Travel credits/vouchers may be offered in lieu of "cash" compensation in cases of denied boarding. NOTE – Compensation will NOT be issued if the passenger is being refused travel:

- for health, safety, or security reasons;
- for failing to follow carrier rules;
- because a passenger does not have appropriate travel documents; or

RULE 24	REFUSAL TO TRANSPORT	PAGE 41

Where, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, the carrier decides that the passenger has engaged in prohibited conduct described above, the carrier may impose any combination of the following sanctions:

- (a) Removal of the passenger at any point.
- (b) Probation: At any time, the carrier may stipulate that the passenger is to follow certain probationary conditions, such as to not engage in prohibited conduct, in order for the carrier to provide transport to the passenger. Such probationary conditions may be imposed for any length of time which, in the exercise of the carrier's reasonable discretion, is necessary to ensure the passenger continues to avoid prohibited conduct.
- (c) Refusal to Transport the Passenger: The length of this refusal to transport may range from a one-time refusal to a longer period determined at the reasonable discretion of the carrier considering the circumstances. Such refusal will be for a period appropriate to the nature of the prohibited conduct and until the carrier is satisfied that the passenger no longer constitutes a threat to the safety of other passengers, crew or the aircraft or to the comfort of other passengers or crew; the unhindered performance of the crew members in their duty onboard the aircraft; or safe and adequate flight operations.

(C) Recourse of the Passenger/Limitation of Liability

Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, passengers and their baggage will be entitled to all other additional rights they may have under this tariff or elsewhere.
2. A person who is refused carriage for a period of time, up to a lifetime ban, or to whom a probation notice is served may provide to the carrier, in writing, the reasons why he/she believes they no longer poses a threat to the safety or comfort of passengers or crew, or to the safety of the aircraft. Such document may be sent to the address provided in the refusal to carry notice or the notice of probation.
3. The carrier will respond to the passenger within a reasonable period of time providing carrier's assessment as to whether it remains necessary to continue the ban or maintain the probation period.

Rule 26: Tickets

(A) General

1. A ticket will not be issued, and the carrier will not carry the passenger unless the passenger has paid the applicable fare or has complied with all credit arrangements.
2. Before boarding, the passenger must present the carrier with proof that he/she has been issued a valid ticket for the flight. Such proof must be in the form of a boarding pass and the passenger must provide the carrier with positive identification to be entitled to transportation. The ticket will give the passenger the right to transportation only between the points of origin and destination, and on the dates, times and via the routing shown on the ticket.
3. The ticket remains at all times the property of the carrier which issued the ticket.
4. The carrier does not permit the passenger to hold more than one confirmed reservation/ticket on the same departure flight/origin and destination for the same travel date.

(B) Validity for Carriage

1. General: When validated, the ticket is good for carriage from the airport of departure to the airport of destination via the route shown on the ticket, for the applicable class of service and is valid for the period of time referred to in 2 below. The passenger will be accepted for carriage on the date and flight segments for which a seat has been reserved. The carrier's agreement to accept a reservation request is subject to the availability of space. The place and date of issue are then indicated on the ticket.
2. Period of Validity: Generally, the period of validity for transportation will be one year from the date on which transportation commences at the point of origin designated on the original ticket, or, if no portion of the ticket is used, one year from the date of issuance of the original ticket. However, certain fares may have different periods of validity. If this is the case, the specific rules associated with the fare will take precedence.
3. Computation of the Ticket Validity: When computing the ticket validity i.e., the minimum/maximum stays and any other calendar periods set out in the ticket, the first day to be counted will be the day following the date that transportation commenced or that the ticket was issued.
4. Expiration of Validity: Tickets expire at midnight on the last day of validity based on where the ticket was issued.

(C) Extension of Ticket Validity

1. Carrier's Operations: If a passenger is prevented from travelling within the period of validity of his/her ticket because the carrier:
 - (a) Cancels the flight upon which the passenger holds confirmed space;
 - (b) Omits a scheduled stop, provided this is the passenger's place of departure, place of destination, or place of stopover;
 - (c) Fails to operate a flight reasonably according to schedule;
 - (d) Causes the passenger to miss a connection;
 - (e) Is unable to provide previously confirmed space.

Calm Air will, without collecting any additional fare, extend the validity of the passenger's ticket until the passenger can travel on the first flight of the carrier, in the class of service which the passenger's fare was paid, and for which space is available. Validity can only be extended up to 30 days.

2. Lack of Space: If the passenger who is in possession of a ticket is prevented from travelling within the period of validity of his/her ticket because the carrier is unable to provide space, the validity of the passenger's ticket will be extended until he/she can be re-accommodated on the first flight which has space available in the same class of service which the passenger had originally paid to travel.
3. Medical Reason: If the passenger is unable to commence travel due to medical reasons, the carrier will extend the period of validity beyond the original validity expiry date for a maximum of three months. A ticket can only be extended once, and the extension must be requested within 30 days prior to the expiry date of the original ticket validity. The medical reason must be certified in writing by a physician specifying that the passenger is prevented from commencing his journey before his/her original ticket expires.

(D) Waiver Minimum/Maximum Stay Provision

1. In the Event of Death of a Family Member Not Accompanying the Passenger

If the passenger holding a special fare ticket returns prior to the expiry of the minimum stay requirement because of the death of an immediate family member not accompanying the passenger, the passenger will be entitled to a refund of the additional amounts paid in order to return early, provided the passenger traveled in the economy cabin. However, no refund will be permitted unless the passenger produces a death certificate confirming that the death of the family member occurred after the commencement of travel.

2. In the Event of a Passenger's Death – Provisions for Accompanying Passengers

(a) Extension of Ticket Validity (Beyond 1 Year) for Normal Fares and Waiver of the Maximum Stay Requirements of Special Fares

- i. The carrier will extend the ticket validity for passengers who are either members of the immediate family of the deceased passenger or are other persons actually accompanying the deceased passenger for up to 45 days beyond the original ticket validity expiry date or 45 days after the date of death of the passenger, whichever date occurs first.
- ii. A death certificate or a copy, must be presented at the time of re-ticketing.
- iii. If the death certificate is not available at the time the passengers are to travel, or, if the carrier has reason to doubt the validity of such certificate, passengers will be accommodated only upon payment of the fare for the transportation used, and a request for refund may be filed with the carrier. Upon receipt of the request for refund and all supporting documents, the carrier will determine the validity of the request and, if valid, will refund the difference between the total fare paid by the passengers and the amount the passengers would have paid under the provision of this rule.

(b) Waiver of Minimum Stay Requirements – Special Fares

- i. In the event of the death of a passenger en route, the minimum stay and group travel requirements with regard to special fares will be waived for passengers who are either members of the immediate family of the deceased passenger or are other persons actually accompanying the deceased person.
- ii. Passengers who have had their minimum stay requirement waived will only be accommodated in the class of service originally ticketed.
- iii. A death certificate or a copy must be presented at the time of re-ticketing.
- iv. If the death certificate is not available at the time the passengers are to travel, or, if the carrier has reason to doubt the validity of such certificate, passengers will be accommodated only upon payment of the fare applicable to the transportation used, and a request for refund may be filed with the carrier. Upon receipt of the request for refund and all supporting documents, the carrier will determine the validity of the request and, if valid, will refund the difference between the total fare paid by the passengers and the amount the passengers would have paid under the provision of this rule.

3. Medical Reasons and Illness

(a) Ticket Extension:

In the case of Normal fares, if, after the passenger commences travel and is prevented from travelling within the period of validity of the ticket because of illness, the carrier will extend the period of validity of the passenger's ticket until the date when the passenger becomes fit to travel according to a medical certificate. Should space not be available when the passenger becomes fit to travel, the carrier will re-accommodate the passenger on the first flight on which space is available. In all cases, travel will be in the same class of service which the passenger had originally paid to travel from the point where the journey is resumed. However, when the remaining flight coupons of the ticket involve one or more stopovers, the validity of the ticket will not be extended for more than three months from the date shown on the medical certificate. In these circumstances, the carrier will also extend the period of validity of the tickets of persons travelling with the incapacitated passenger.

In the case of Special fare tickets, the carrier will extend the validity of the tickets until the date of the first available flight after the passenger becomes fit to travel according to the medical certificate, but not more than seven days beyond the date when the passenger becomes fit to travel.

(b) Waiver of the Minimum Stay Requirement for Special Fares:

In the event of illness, there will be no reduction or waiver of the required minimum stay.

(E) Upgrading (Changing from a Lower to a Higher Fare Ticket)

1. Before travel commences, a passenger may upgrade to a fare of higher value to travel to any of the carrier's destinations, provided travel is in accordance with 3 below.
2. Passengers upgrading in accordance with 1 above, may do so provided:
 - (a) Ticketing and advance purchase requirements of the new fare have been met; and
 - (b) Travel is via Calm Air; and
 - (c) Reservations have been booked in the appropriate class of service of the new fare; and
 - (d) The difference in fares has been paid.
3. After departure, the passenger holding a ticket for return travel, may upgrade the total fare in accordance with the rules of the fare paid.
4. The original fare paid (including all additional charges) will be used as a full credit towards the fare for the upgraded journey (with exception to restricted/seat sale/promotional fares).
5. In the event travel at the new fare is subsequently changed and/or cancelled, the higher fee(s) for either the originally purchased or new fare shall be assessed.

Exception: For travel which has been upgraded to a fare type which has no associated fees, changes may be made without additional charge; however, the cancellation fee from the original fare will be applied to the new upgraded fare.

(F) Non-transferability

A ticket is not transferable.

Note: The carrier will not be liable to the person named on the ticket if the ticket is either presented for transportation or for a refund by another person. The carrier will refuse transportation to any person other than the person named on the ticket.

(G) Prohibited Practices

The carrier specifically prohibits the practice commonly known as:

Hidden City or Point Beyond Ticketing: The purchase of a fare from a point before the passenger's actual point of origin or to a point beyond the passenger's actual destination.

Use of this practice will result in the passenger's reservation being cancelled and the passenger will not be entitled to a refund.

(H) Invalidated Tickets

If the passenger attempts to circumvent any term or condition of sale or the carrier determines that the passenger is making use of any of the prohibited practices specified in (H) above, this will cause the passenger's ticket to be invalid and the carrier will have the right to:

- (a) Cancel any remaining portion of the passenger's itinerary; and
- (b) Refuse to board the passenger or check the passenger's baggage; and/or
- (c) Charge the passenger for the true value of the ticket, which shall be no less than the difference between the fare actually paid and the lowest fare for the passenger's actual itinerary.

Assistance offered to the passenger by the carrier's employees in loading, unloading or transferring unchecked baggage shall be considered as complimentary service to the passenger. 2. The carrier will issue a refund to the person who purchased the ticket.
3. If, at the time of ticket purchase, the purchaser designates another person to whom the refund shall be made, then the refund will be made to the person so designated. To do so, the passenger must contact the carrier directly.
4. Acceptance of a refund by the passenger will release the carrier from further liability.
5. In any instance where refunds are appropriate, the carrier will process requests in a timely manner and refund the fare in the original form of payment. The carrier will process refund requests within 10 business days for credit card purchases and within 40 business days for cash or debit transactions.

(B) Involuntary Refunds

1. Involuntary refunds are not subject to any restrictions contained in the applicable fare rule.
2. The amount of the involuntary refund will be as follows:
 - (a) If, due to a schedule irregularity within the carrier's control or denied boarding in accordance with Schedule Irregularities and Denied Boarding, the passenger chooses to no longer travel due to loss of purpose of travel or if alternate travel could not be provided within a reasonable time, the carrier will offer a refund equal to the fare and charge paid, irrespective if travel has commenced.
 - (b) If, due to a schedule irregularity within the carrier's control or denied boarding in accordance with Schedule Irregularities and Denied Boarding, the passenger chooses to no longer travel because the alternate transportation offered does not meet with the passenger's satisfaction, the carrier will offer a refund equal to the fare and charge paid.
 - (c) If, due to a schedule irregularity not within the carrier's control or a refusal to transport in accordance with Schedule Irregularities and Refusal to Transport, no portion of a ticket has been used, the amount of refund will be equal to the fare and charges paid; or
 - (d) If, due to a schedule irregularity not within the carrier's control or a refusal to transport in accordance with Schedule Irregularities and Refusal to Transport, a portion of the ticket has been used, the amount refunded to the purchaser will be the one that results in the most generous amount using one of the following methods:
 - i. The difference between the fare paid and the fare for transportation actually used or to be used; or,
 - ii. Provided that the point where travel terminated was on the passenger's routing as shown on the original ticket and the routing remains unchanged, the passenger will be refunded the difference between the one way fare applicable to the unused transportation from the point where the passenger terminated travel to the destination or next stopover point as named on the ticket or to the point at which transportation is to be resumed less the same rate of discount, (if travel is on a discount fare) that was applied to the original one way fare (including all charges). If the passenger was travelling on a round trip or circle trip ticket, the amount refunded would be based on the rate of discount of one half of the round-trip fare; or,
 - iii. If the point where the passenger terminated travel was not on the routing specified on the ticket, the refund will be based on the lowest applicable fare of any air carrier operating between the point where the passenger terminated travel to the destination or next stopover point named on the ticket or to the point at which transportation is to be resumed.
3. Involuntary refund of tickets shall be made in the currency used to issue the ticket and, in the country, where the ticket was purchased, whenever possible. However, Canadian dollar refunds or refunds in the currency of the country where the involuntary refund is necessary may be made at the request of the passenger provided a refund in such currency is not prohibited by local government foreign exchange control regulations.

3. If no portion of a ticket has been used, the refund will be full amount of the fare paid less any cancellation fee and/or service charge.
4. If a portion of the ticket has been used, the refund will be an amount equal to the difference between the fare paid and the applicable fare for travel between the points for which the ticket has been used, less any cancellation fee and/or service charge.
5. Voluntary refund of tickets shall be made in the currency used to issue the ticket and, in the country, where the ticket was purchased, whenever possible. However, Canadian dollar refunds or refunds in the currency of the country where the voluntary refund is requested may be made at the request of the passenger provided a refund in such currency is not prohibited by local government foreign exchange control regulations.
6. Non-refundable tickets can be exchanged for a future ticket for up to one year from the ticket issue date as long as the reservation is cancelled on or before the first travel date on the ticket.

(D) Time Limit for Requesting a Refund

1. The passenger has one month after the expiration date of the ticket to request a refund.

(E) Refunds in the Case of Death

1. Refunds in the case of death are not subject to any restrictions contained in the applicable fare rules.
2. If no portion of a ticket has been used, the amount of refund will be equal to the fare and charges paid.
3. If a portion of the ticket has been used, the refund will be equal to the difference between the fare paid and the applicable fare for travel between the points for which the ticket has been used and will not be subject to any cancellation fee and/or service charge.
4. Refunds will only be made upon presentation of the unused coupon(s) and death certificate, or a copy duly executed by the competent authorities (i.e. those designated to issue a death certificate by the applicable laws of the country concerned), in the country in which the death occurred.
5. In the case of death of the passenger, the refund will be made to the estate of the passenger.

(F) Jury Duty

In the event the passenger is called to jury duty or subpoenaed, a full refund will apply upon presentation of jury summons or subpoena. No other document will be accepted.
